R.J. LEWIS

COMEDY MAGICIAN

OVERVIEW

A totally versatile performer combining dazzling costumes, unique variety skills, and a winning personality, R.J. Lewis has credentials that include the Atlantic City Casinos, the White House, the Broadway Company of the hit musical “BARNUM”, and Stephen Schwarz’s new Musical “MAGIC TO DO” onboard the Princess Cruise Line.

Not just another Magician, but a unique entertainer whose skills (Magic, Juggling, Fire-eating, Ventriloquism, as well as others) combine with one liners and his own ingratiating persona.

R.J. can even customize his performance to fit your specific needs, group, or situation and he combines them with his skills to fit any specific requirements.

His stage show uses imagination, wit, and energy to dazzle and delight audiences. His performance works for any age, any group, and is always tasteful, frenetic, and fun.

BIO

R.J. started his professional career as a street performer in the 1970's. His skills led him to compete and win the International Beaux Arts Society Award for Magic Excellence in both 1979 and 1980.

Seen passing the hat in Schubert Alley, R.J. was hired for the Broadway show 'BARNUM' where he did magic, sang, danced, and juggled from 1980-1982. He was invited to perform at the White House in 1982 as part of the "EASTER AT THE WHITE HOUSE" festivities.

He went on to perform in Atlantic City as the comedy act in a revue show, "ROGER MINAMI'S HEATWAVE" (1983-1985). He then went on to produce and perform as part of the Castle Character program at TRUMP'S CASTLE CASINO HOTEL from 1985-1993.

He worked at almost every casino in Atlantic City as a Magician, Juggler, and Stilt-Walker until 2000. In 1997, he was hired for the Broadway Company of "BUSKER ALLEY", which starred Tommy Tune.

His appearances include the TODAY show for "THE NEW YORK INTERNATIONAL FRINGE FESTIVAL" and on Season 3 of "THE APPRENTICE". He played the lead in the short film "BEYOND BELIEF" (2013), for which he won "Best Actor In A Short Film" at two festivals, and he acted and co-wrote "DOWN IN FLAMES" (2015) which won six awards.

From 2016-2018, R.J. had the role of "The Magic Maker" in the Stephen Schwartz musical "MAGIC TO DO" created for Princess Cruises, and presented the show as well as his own one-man act onboard for every cruise.

WHAT CLIENTS SAY

He was absolutely the best entertainment we had on the ship. His solo show was particularly amazing. We were impressed by his skill and wealth of talents.

-- Meghan M. -- Ruby Princess

Thank you so much for your wonderful help with Mr. Rockefeller's 100th Birthday. Many thanks for a wonderful time!

-- Katherine C.

Our experience with RJ was fantastic. He was professional, well-rehearsed, engaging, and enthusiastic. RJ looked awesome in his hair, makeup, and costumes.

I was so impressed with all of the additional costumes and the magic tricks he brought (loved the floating pumpkin and disappearing candelabra!).

I felt RJ went above and beyond for the event and I truly enjoyed working with him and having him host this exciting and fun event. I hope RJ enjoyed his experience at the Fallsview Casino Resort and Haunted Mansion event.

-- Rebecca L.

Just a letter of kudos for RJ Lewis. He performed on Sat, Feb 8th at our home in Ocean Twsp. NJ for a casual house party with friends. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed him and I'm sure will talk about him for months/years to come. It was a great party, but he made it memorable! Thank you!

-- Michele E.

We just wanted to send you a note thanking you for a most entertaining program. Adults and children alike were thoroughly entertained. Your interest in providing enjoyment was obvious. And you even make the business portion very pleasant. Thank you for adding so much to our Simcha.

-- Susan and Dov S.
